Missouri Court of Appeals - Western District

Quick Guide to Appellate Practice

The Quick Guide is prepared for use as a reference tool for attorneys and litigants appearing before this Court. It is not to be used as a substitute for the Missouri Court Rules, the Western District Special Rules, or the judicial decisions interpreting those Rules. Should there be a conflict between information within this document and the Missouri Court Rules, the Western District Special Rules, or case law, the Rules and case law are controlling.

The following is only a summary of the procedures for filing and perfecting an appeal in the Western District of the Court of Appeals.

MISSOURI JUDICIARY WEBSITE

The Western District maintains a website which can be found at the Missouri Judiciary website, www.courts.mo.gov. Several useful tools are available on the website including full-text opinions of the court, monthly dockets, the Special Rules of the Western District, the Quick Guide to Appellate Practice, and Court announcements. The Missouri Judiciary website provides full-text opinions of the Missouri Supreme Court and the other Missouri intermediate appellate courts.

I. JURISDICTION AND JUDGMENT

A. Jurisdiction

The Court must have jurisdiction or the authority to hear an appeal. This Court has jurisdiction of all appeals, except where jurisdiction is vested in the Supreme Court of Missouri, pursuant to article V, section 3 of the Missouri Constitution, from cases arising out of:

1. Circuit Courts within the Western District. See generally § 512.020, RSMo.
2. Associate Division of the Circuit Court. Only where permitted under §§ 512.180.2 and 543.335. IMPORTANT: § 512.180.1 requires aggrieved parties seeking review of a judgment of the associate division tried without a jury under the provisions of chapter 482 or 535 to first request a trial de novo in the Circuit Court.
3. Probate Division of the Circuit Court. See § 472.160, RSMo.
4. Administrative Appeals

B. Judgment

Generally, an appeal may be taken only from a final judgment. A judgment is final and appealable when a writing signed by a judge and denominated "judgment" or "decree" is filed. Rule 74.01(a). A judgment includes a decree and any order from which an appeal lies. Rule 74.01(a).

A final judgment disposes of all issues, claims, and parties. In the absence of a final judgment, the appeal is premature. A judgment that disposes of fewer than all parties or claims may be made final for purposes of appellate review if the trial court makes an express determination that there is “no just reason for delay.” Rule 74.01(b). In the absence of this express determination, the appellate court has no jurisdiction. Tendai v. Mo. State Bd. of Registration for the Healing Arts, 77 S.W.3d 1, 2 (Mo. banc 2002). The trial court’s designation, however, is only effective when the order disposes of a distinct “judicial unit.” Wilson v. City of St. Louis, 600 S.W.3d 763 (Mo. banc 2020).

In a civil case, a motion for new trial or to amend the judgment must be filed within 30 days after the entry of a judgment. Rule 78.04. The time for filing the motion for new trial or to amend the judgment in a civil case may not be extended either by the trial court or the appellate court. Rule 44.01(b). In civil cases, the judgment becomes final 30 days after the entry of the judgment if no timely motion for new trial is filed. Rule 75.01; Rule 81.05(a)(1). In jury-tried cases, allegations of error must be included in a motion for new trial to be preserved for appellate review. Rule 78.07(a). In cases tried without a jury, a motion for new trial or to amend the judgment is not necessary to preserve any matter for appellate review if the matter was previously presented to the trial court. Rule 78.07(b). In all cases, allegations as to the form or language of the judgment, including the failure to make statutorily required findings, must be raised in a motion to amend the judgment to be preserved for appellate review. Rule 78.07(c). If a timely motion for new trial is filed, the judgment becomes final at the expiration of 90 days after the filing of the motion or, if such motion is passed on at an earlier date, the latter of: (1) 30 days after the entry of judgment, or (2) disposition of the motion. Rule 78.06; Rule 81.05(a). A timely filed motion for new trial is overruled if the trial court does not rule on it within 90 days after the date the timely motion is filed. Rule 78.06; Rule 81.05(a)(2)(A).

In a criminal case, the judgment is final when the motion for new trial is overruled, allocution given, judgment and sentence entered in accordance with the jury verdict, and sentence is imposed. State v. Bone, 447 S.W.3d 757, 758 (Mo. App. E.D. 2014); Rule 29.07(b)(1); Rule 29.11(c). A criminal case is not final until a sentence is imposed. State ex rel. Zahnd v. Van Amburg, 533 S.W.3d 227 (Mo. banc 2017); State v. Larson, 79 S.W.3d 891 (Mo. banc 2002); State v. Lynch, 679 S.W.2d 858 (Mo. banc 1984). Pursuant to Rule 29.07(c), “A judgment of conviction shall set forth the plea, the verdict or findings, and the adjudication and sentence.” In a criminal case, the motion for new trial must be filed 15 days after return of the verdict. Rule 29.11(b). The time may be extended by the court for one additional period of 10 days. Rule 29.11(b). No judgment shall be rendered until the time for filing a motion for new trial has expired, and, if a motion for new trial is filed, no judgment shall be rendered until the motion for new trial has been determined. Rule 29.11(c). If the motion for new trial is not ruled upon within 90 days after the motion is filed, it is denied for all purposes. Rule 29.11(g). In jury-tried cases, allegations of error must be included in a motion for new trial to be preserved for appellate review except for issues regarding jurisdiction of the court over the offense charged, whether the indictment or information states an offense, and the sufficiency of the evidence to sustain the conviction. Rule 29.11(d). A motion for new trial is optional in a case tried without a jury. Rule 29.11(e). If, however, a motion for new trial is filed in a case tried without a jury, allegations of error to be preserved for appellate review must be included in the motion for new trial, except for issues regarding jurisdiction of the court over the offense, whether the indictment or information states an offense, and the sufficiency of the evidence to sustain the conviction. Rule 29.11(e).

II. ELECTRONIC FILING REQUIREMENTS

See Rules 103.01-103.10, Western District Special Rule 12; Rule 84.025 and Rule 84.026; Rule 30.005 and Rule 30.006

An attorney in good standing with the Missouri Bar representing a party before the court must register as a user of the electronic filing system to file documents with the court. Western District Special Rule 12(A). The court serves notices, opinions, and other documents to registered users through the electronic filing system and on all others as provided by Rule 43.01. Western District Special Rule 12(E); Rule 84.025(c).

A. Service of Filings

The electronic filing system does not serve the initial filings on parties. Rule 84.026(a). For any new case filed in the electronic filing system, service of the initially filed documents shall be made pursuant to Rule 43.01. Rule 84.026(a). Initial filings also include filings seeking special orders permitting a late filing of the notice of appeal, applications for transfer, appeals from orders granting or denying class certifications, and filings of original writs. Rule 84.026(a). For filings on an existing case, registered users serve and receive service of filings through the electronic filing system; no additional service or certificate of service is required. Rule 84.026(b). After service of the initial filing, registered users shall serve documents as provided by Rule 43.01 on any party ineligible to use the electronic filing system. Rule 84.026(c)(1). After service of the initial filing, any party ineligible to use the electronic filing system shall serve documents as provided by Rule 43.01 on every party not represented by an attorney but service of documents need not be made on parties represented by an attorney because the notice generated by the electronic filing system shall constitute service on such parties. Rule 84.026(c)(2).

For Criminal Cases – Filings of documents in this court and notices from this court shall be as provided by Rule 84.025. Rule 30.005. Further, service of all filings in this court shall be as provided by Rule 84.026. Rule 30.006.

B. Transcripts

All transcripts shall be prepared in Portable Document Format (.pdf). The electronic version shall be prepared and submitted one page per sheet. The paper copy shall be prepared in page reduction format. The court reporter shall provide Appellant with an electronic version and at least one paper copy. Western District Special Rule 12(C).

C. Exhibits

Registered electronic filers may submit trial exhibits to this court through electronic filing. Exhibits submitted electronically shall include a separate cover page containing the following information: (1) the number and style of the case; (2) the name and telephone number of the attorney submitting the exhibits; (3) an index of the exhibits enclosed; and (4) a statement signed by the submitting party or attorney certifying the exhibits are in fact the original exhibits submitted to the court or agency from which the appeal is taken. Western District Special Rule 12(D).

D. Paper Copies

Registered electronic filers permitted to create and file a system-generated legal file shall provide one paper copy of all briefs. Western District Special Rule 12(B).

E. Format of Electronically Filed Documents

All electronic documents shall be filed in the PDF format and shall be formatted according to the applicable rules governing formatting of paper documents, including page and word limits. Rule 103.04(a). Electronic documents that are part of the official court record shall be self-contained and shall not contain hyperlinks other than those generated by the electronic filing system. Rule 103.04(b).

Electronic documents requiring a signature shall be signed by an original signature, stamped signature or an electronic graphic representation of a signature, or in the following manner: /s/ John or Jane Person. Rule 103.04(d).

G. Unavailability of Electronic Filing System

If a registered user believes the unavailability of the electronic filing system prevented a timely filing to the party's prejudice, the registered user may file a motion to the court within ten days of the user's first unsuccessful attempt to file the document and state the date and time of the first unsuccessful attempt and why the delay was prejudicial. Rule 103.06(b). If the court determines that the unavailability of the electronic filing system prevented the court from receiving the filing, the court shall deem the document filed on the day that the user initially attempted to file the document. Rule 103.06(c).

H. Filing Deadline

Filing deadline for an electronically filed document is 11:59:59 p.m. central time (Rule 103.06(d)), and such document is submitted for filing when the electronic filing system receives the document and sends the confirmation (Rule 103.06(e)). The electronic filing system will affix the date and time of filing of the document. Rule 103.06(f).

III. REDACTION

Documents filed in cases are open and available to the public unless they are set at a higher security level by statute, rule, or court order. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, all filers shall redact information that is confidential pursuant to statute, court rule or order, or other law. Rule 84.015(a). Such confidential information can include, but is not limited to:

- (1) Social security numbers, driver's license numbers, state identification numbers, taxpayer identification numbers, and passport numbers;
- (2) Financial institution account numbers, credit or debit card numbers, personal identification numbers, or passwords used to secure any such accounts or cards;
- (3) Names, addresses, and contact information of informants, victims, witnesses, and persons protected under orders of protection or restraining orders;
- (4) Dates of birth;
- (5) Names of individuals known to be minors; and
- (6) Case numbers of confidential, expunged, or sealed records.

Filers should also exercise caution when filing documents that include medical records, employment history, financial records, proprietary information, or trade secrets.

Missouri Supreme Court Operating Rule 2.02; Rule 84.015(a). The responsibility for redacting confidential information rests solely with the party filing the document. Rule 84.015(b).

All redactions must be done in a manner that makes it clear that information has been redacted. This may be done by using generic descriptors to refer to redacted information. Rule 84.015(c). When a filer redacts information from a document filed with this Court, the filer must at the same time file a confidential information filing sheet that either: (1) has the unredacted version of the document attached; or (2) sets out the information redacted with an explanation as to where the information redacted was used or the generic descriptors used to reference the redacted information. Rule 84.015(a). A Confidential Redacted Information Filing Sheet is available on the Missouri Supreme Court's website.

All filers shall affirmatively certify compliance with the redaction requirements in Rule 84.015 when a document is filed. Rule 84.015(e).

IV. NOTICE OF APPEAL

A. FILING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL

Generally, in criminal and civil appeals, the notice of appeal is filed with the clerk of the trial court no later than ten days after the judgment becomes final. Rules 30.01(a) and 81.04(a).

In civil cases and in criminal cases, for the initial filings of any new case with the court of appeals, service shall be made pursuant to Rule 43.01. Rule 84.026(a) and Rule 30.006. The clerk of the trial court shall give notice of the transmittal of the notice of appeal to all parties, but the failure to do so does not affect the validity of the appeal. Rule 81.04(g). In criminal cases involving a felony conviction or a post-conviction proceeding, the clerk of the trial court shall serve the notice of appeal on the attorney general pursuant to Rule 43.01. Rule 30.01(c).

1. Notice of Appeal Form

The form and contents of a notice of appeal are contained in Form 8-A(2) for civil cases and Form 8-A(3) for criminal cases. Rules 30.01(a) and 81.04(a).

The notice of appeal must specify:

- *parties taking the appeal,
- *judgment, decree, or order appealed from and the date entered,
- *court to which the appeal is taken,

*date of filing of post-trial motion (if any) and date the post-trial motion was ruled upon, and

*and what the Record on Appeal will consist of—Legal File Only or Legal File and Transcript.

2. Copy of Judgment

3. Docket Fee – If Required

The notice of appeal should be accompanied by:

(a) a docket fee of $70.00—Rule 81.04(d) and (e)(1); or

See Goldsby v. Lombardi, 559 S.W.3d 878, 885 (Mo. banc 2018) regarding payment of filing fee. If after the timely filing of a notice of appeal, appellant fails to take the further steps required to secure review of the appeal within the time periods allowed or extended, Appellant’s case may be placed on a dismissal docket for failing to pay the filing fee. Id.; Rule 84.08. “The clerk shall notify all parties that the appeal will be dismissed unless the appellant remedies the default before a specified date. The date shall not be less than 15 days from the date of the notice. If the default is not remedied by that date, an order of dismissal shall be entered.” Rule 84.08.

(b) a statement citing specific statutory or other authority demonstrating a docket fee is not required by law--Rule 81.04(e)(2); or

(c) a motion to prosecute the appeal in forma pauperis. Rule 81.04(e)(3) and Rule 30.01(a).

A notice of appeal received with a motion to prosecute the appeal in forma pauperis is deemed filed on the date the notice of appeal is received if the in forma pauperis motion is granted. Rule 81.04(f) and Rule 30.01(a).

B. CROSS-APPEAL

If a notice of appeal is timely filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within ten days of the date the first of notice of appeal was filed. Rule 81.04(c). (The court generally consolidates all appeals arising from the same circuit court judgment into one case for judicial efficiency. Any party by motion may request that appeals be consolidated.)

C. LATE NOTICE OF APPEAL

If a party fails to file a timely notice of appeal, a party may seek leave from this court to file a late notice of appeal. To seek leave, a party must file with the clerk of the court of appeals a written motion for special order permitting a late notice of appeal. A motion for leave to file a notice of appeal out of time may be filed:

1. Civil Cases

Must be filed within six months from the date the judgment became final. The court of appeals may issue a special order only upon motion, with notice to the adverse parties, and a showing by affidavit or otherwise that the delay was not due to the appellant's culpable negligence. Rule 81.07(a).

2. Criminal Cases

Must be filed within twelve months after the judgment becomes final, including post-conviction proceedings. The court of appeals may issue a special order in its discretion "for good cause shown." Rule 30.03.

In either case, a copy of the final judgment from which the appeal is sought shall be attached to the motion. When a special order is granted, this court shall specify the time within which the notice of appeal is to be filed in the trial court, and the clerk of the trial court shall permit the appellant to file a notice of appeal within the time specified by the appellate court. Rule 30.03 and Rule 81.07(a). The notice of appeal should not be filed with the trial court until after the appellate court has granted the motion. If a notice of appeal has been previously filed, it is still necessary to file a new notice of appeal.

D. INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS BY STATE

Pursuant to § 547.200.1, RSMo, the State may appeal from an order: quashing an arrest warrant, suppressing evidence, suppressing a confession or admission, or from a determination that the accused lacks mental capacity or fitness to proceed to trial. The notice of appeal must be filed in the trial court within five days of the entry of the order. § 547.200.4, RSMo. See also Rule 20.01(a) and Rule 44.01(a)—when period of time is less than seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation of days. The filing of the record on appeal and the briefing cycle are expedited. Rule 30.02.

E. SPECIAL TIME LIMITS FOR NOTICE OF APPEAL

Note: Rule 41.02—generally speaking, Rules 41 to 101 supersede all statutes and existing court rules inconsistent therewith.

1. Workers' Compensation cases

Notice of appeal must be filed within thirty days of the date of the Commission's decision (final award) with the Commission. § 287.495.1, RSMo. See also §287.480.1, RSMo (When Division or Commission receives the notice of appeal, the date mailed as noted by post office on envelope or date received by fax is the date notice of appeal is filed—excludes Sundays and legal holidays if last day falls on one of those, but not Saturdays).

2. Unemployment cases

Commission decision becomes final ten days after the date of notification or mailing of the decision to the parties. § 288.200.2, RSMo. Notice of appeal must be filed within twenty days of finality with the Commission. § 288.210, RSMo. See also § 288.240, RSMo (When Commission receives the notice of appeal, the date mailed as noted by post office on envelope is the date notice of appeal is filed—excludes Saturday, Sundays, and legal holidays if last day falls on one of those).

3. Juvenile Matters and Termination of Parental Rights

Although § 211.261, RSMo, instructs that notice of appeals must be filed within thirty days after final judgment, the Missouri Supreme Court has held that the Civil Rules of Procedure apply and govern the time within which an appeal can be taken. In the Interest of D.J.B., 704 S.W.2d 217, 218 (Mo. banc 1986). Thus, a judgment becomes final after the expiration of thirty days after the entry of such judgment, if no timely motion for new trial is filed, see Rule 81.05(a)(1), and a notice of appeal shall be filed no later than ten days after the judgment or order appealed from becomes final, see Rule 81.04(a). Id. at 217-18.

V. STAY OF EXECUTION/BONDS

A. CIVIL APPEAL

The filing of a notice of appeal automatically stays execution on a judgment during the pendency of an appeal when the appellant is an executor, administrator, personal representative, conservator, guardian, curator, or when the appellant is a county, city, township, town, school district, or other municipality. Rule 81.09(a).

In all other cases, the appellant may, at or prior to the filing of the notice of appeal, file a supersedeas bond in an amount determined under Rule 81.09(b), which, if approved and accepted by the trial court, shall have the effect of staying execution on the judgment while the appeal is pending. Rule 81.09(a). A copy of the appeal bond should be filed with the appellate court within ten days after filing the appeal bond. Rule 81.09(a).

If the notice of appeal has not been filed, a bond may be filed with permission of the trial court. Rule 81.10. After the notice of appeal has been filed or where an appeal is taken out of time after a special order of the appellate court, the application to file a bond may be made only in the appellate court. Rule 81.10. The appellate court may, in its discretion, decline to grant the application, issue a stay upon such terms with respect to a supersedeas bond as may be appropriate, or remand to the trial court for a determination in accordance with Rule 81.09. Rule 81.10. It is the general practice of this court, if it sustains the application, to remand the matter to the trial court to approve the amount and form of the bond.

Any party who believes that the bond is inadequate or excessive may file an application with the court in which the appeal is pending stating the grounds for the application and the relief sought. Rule 81.09(c). If the appellate court finds that the bond is inadequate or excessive, the court will modify the conditions of the stay of execution. Rule 81.09(c).

B. CRIMINAL APPEAL

If a convicted defendant is entitled to a conditional release pending an appeal, the conditions shall be determined by the trial court pursuant to Rule 33. Rule 30.16.

Section 547.170, RSMo, contains a list of the offenses for which a defendant may not be released on bail pending appeal. A defendant/appellant on an appeal bond is only entitled to release until an opinion is issued affirming the conviction or dismissing the appeal. The appellate court may in its discretion, order the defendant/appellant arrested before the opinion is made public. § 547.330, RSMo.

Western District Special Rule 18 requires that if an eligible defendant is released on bail pending appeal pursuant to Rules 30.16 and 33.01, the stated conditions of the bond shall be: (1) that the defendant will report to and appear in person before any designated judge of this court or the clerk of this court, with surety if so directed, at such places and times as shall be directed by the court; (2) that the defendant will not depart the geographical jurisdiction of the State of Missouri without prior written permission of this court; (3) that defendant state his place of abode and mailing address on the face of the bond, together with the address of his surety, and notify the court immediately in writing of any changes of his place of abode or mailing address; and (4) that the surety notify the court immediately in writing of any change of defendant's place of abode or mailing address.

Failure to comply with the conditions of bond may result in the court issuing an order for the arrest of the accused. Rule 33.08.

VI. ATTORNEY'S FEES

Any party claiming an amount due for attorney's fees on appeal pursuant to contract, statute, or otherwise and which this court has jurisdiction to consider, must file a separate written motion before submission of the cause. Western District Special Rule 29. Motions for attorney's fees on appeal concerning domestic issues must be filed in the circuit court. § 452.355, RSMo. Under § 452.355, RSMo, the circuit court has authority in domestic cases to award attorney's fees for services rendered on appeal, even after the appeal has been filed. Travis v. Travis, 63 S.W.3d 296, 299 (Mo. App. 2001).

VII. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

After the notice of appeal has been filed, the court may schedule a settlement conference for the purpose of exploring the possibility of settlement. If any party fails to comply with any part of the settlement conference scheduling order, that party may be subject to sanctions, including dismissal. Western District Special Rule 36.

VIII. MOTIONS and FAXES and E-MAIL

A. MOTIONS

All motions must be in writing and must be filed with the clerk's office. Motions should be addressed to the clerk of the court. Rule 84.20. All motions must be signed by at least one attorney of record or by the self-represented party. Rule 84.01. Attorneys are required to file all motions electronically. Rule 103.05(a). For filings on an existing case, registered users of the electronic filing system serve and receive service of filings through the electronic filing system; no additional service or certificate of service is required. Rule 84.026(b). Registered users shall serve documents as provided by Rule 43.01 on any party ineligible to use the electronic filing system. Rule 84.026(c)(1).

Criminal Cases – Filings of documents in this court and notices from this court shall be as provided by Rule 84.025. Rule 30.005. Further, service of all filings in this court shall be as provided by Rule 84.026. Rule 30.006. But see Rule 20.04. The provisions of Rule 84.01 shall apply to motions and suggestions filed in the appellate court. Rule 30.10

Unless otherwise ordered by this court, suggestions in opposition to a motion may be filed within five days after the date of service. Rule 84.01(b); Rule 30.10. Motions are decided on the pleadings; there is no oral argument unless directed by the court. Rules 84.01(b); Rule 30.10. Motions are generally held five business days before disposition. Orders ruling on the motions are delivered via the electronic filing system to an attorney of record. Orders ruling on motions pertaining to self-represented parties are mailed.

IX. RECORD ON APPEAL

The record on appeal shall contain all of the record, proceedings, and evidence necessary to the determination of all questions to be presented to the court by either party for decision. Rule 81.12(a) and Rule 30.04(a). The record on appeal consists of two parts - the "legal file" and the "transcript." Rule 81.12 (a) and Rule 30.04(a). In criminal cases, Rule 30.04(b) directs that the "legal file shall be prepared as provided in Rule 81.12[.]” A legal file must be filed. A transcript may be filed.

A. LEGAL FILE

Appellant shall prepare the legal file. Rule 81.12(b) and Rule 30.04(b). If the electronic filing system permits creation of a system-generated legal file as provided in Rule 81.12(b)(1) and Court Operating Rule 27.04, that method shall be used. If that method cannot be used, the legal file shall be prepared as provided in Rule 81.12(b)(2).

1. System-Generated Legal File

Rule 81.12(b)(1):

(a) The legal file shall consist of a legal file index generated by the system and all of the hyperlinked documents referenced in the index. Rule 81.12(b)(1)(A).

(b) Appellant shall designate the trial court documents to be included in the legal file and submit such designations for filing in the manner provided by the system for the generation of the legal file index. Rule 81.12(b)(1)(B).

(c) If any documents in the trial court record is not available for designation, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the trial court, within 10 days after the notice of appeal is filed, a written request that those unavailable documents be entered into the system. Such request shall specifically identify each requested document by reference to the case number, document title, and date of filing. Prior to the filing of the respondent's brief, any party may request oral argument by filing a written notice of request for oral argument with this court. After the respondent's brief is filed, in any case where no prior request has been made, the court will notify the parties that their case will be submitted on the briefs without oral argument unless, within ten (10) days of the court's notification, counsel or self-represented party requests oral argument. In all cases, it is within the court's discretion to deny a request for oral argument. Western District Special Rule 44.

Parties are encouraged to request to be on a particular docket at any point prior to respondent's brief being filed.

XIII. ORAL ARGUMENT

Oral argument is optional. Cases may be submitted on the briefs without oral argument. A respondent who fails to file a brief will not be permitted to participate in oral argument unless permitted by the court for good cause shown. Rule 84.12(b) representation that, after the ten (10) day window, circumstances arose outside the control of the attorney necessitating the delayed filing of the motion to continue.

If multiple appellants or respondents desire to present oral argument, they shall divide the allotted time among themselves, but the time shall not exceed the maximum time for a single appellant or respondent as provided. Western District Special Rule 1.

Cross-appeals shall be treated as one cause, and, in such cases, the plaintiff in the trial court shall be entitled to open and close the argument. Western District Special Rule 1.

After termination of parental rights and adoption case, priority placement on the docket shall be given to appeals under sections 386.540, 188.028, 512.025, 542.301, 573.070, and 632.430, RSMo. Western District Special Rule 2.

Any motion to expedite a cause on the docket shall be accompanied by affidavits showing the particular facts on which such is based. Western District Special Rule 2.

XIV. OPINION

In each case, the judicial decision is reduced to writing and filed in the cause. In cases where all judges agree to affirm and believe that an opinion would have no precedential value, disposition may be by a memorandum decision or written order. Rules 84.16(b) and 30.25(b). Opinions are handed down and filed each Tuesday. The opinions are available on the court's website Tuesday afternoon. A copy of the opinion will be mailed to self-represented parties. The notice of appeal shall include the appellant's application for rehearing, a copy of the reconciliation required by subsection 4 of section 386.420, RSMo, a concise statement of the issues being appealed, a full and complete list of the parties to the commission proceeding, all necessary filing fees, and any other information specified by the rules of the court. § 386.510, RSMo. The party aggrieved by the agency decision shall file the appellant's brief and reply brief. Rule 84.05(e).

Rule 84.035(a); Western District Special Rule 40(A). The petition shall include the items listed in Rule 84.035(b). In reviewing petitions filed pursuant to Rule 84.035 to determine whether to exercise the court's discretion to permit an appeal, the court will consider the following circumstances:

- (1) Whether the trial court's denial of class status would effectively end the litigation and any realistic chance that individual claims could be prosecuted;
- (2) Whether the trial court's grant of class status would put substantial pressure on the defendant to settle without regard to the merits of the case;
- (3) Whether an interlocutory appeal of the trial court's class action determination would facilitate the development of the law pertaining to class actions;
- (4) Whether the trial court's order granting or denying class certification is clearly erroneous; and
- (5) Whether there are any other special circumstances sufficient to justify an interlocutory appeal.

Western District Special Rule 40(B). A party may file a response opposing the petition within ten days after the petition is filed. Rule 84.035(c). An original of all filings associated with a petition for appeal by permission shall be filed. Rule 84.035(d). The petition to appeal will be decided on the basis of the petition and response without further briefing or oral argument unless the court otherwise orders. Rule 84.035(e).

If the petition is granted, the appellant shall file a notice of appeal, the required docket fee, and all necessary attachments with the appropriate circuit clerk within ten days of entry of the order granting permission to appeal. Rule 84.035(f). The petition for permission to appeal, together with attached exhibits, the response, and any portions of the record filed with the response by the party opposing the petition shall constitute the record, and no separate record need be prepared for the appellate court. Rule 84.035(h). Either party may supplement the appellate record by filing on or before the date the main brief is filed any additional portions of the trial court record and proceedings necessary to the determination of the questions presented on appeal. Rule 84.035(h).

The appellant shall file a brief within thirty days of the filing of the notice of appeal in the circuit court. The respondent may file a brief within twenty days of the filing of the appellant's brief. The appellant may file a reply brief within ten days of the filing of the respondent's brief. Rule 84.035(g).

The appeal of any order granting or denying class action certification shall not stay the proceedings in the trial court unless the trial judge or the appellate court so orders. Rule 84.035(i).

If the petition to appeal is denied, further review, if any, of the trial court's order granting or denying class action certification shall be by petition for original remedial writ filed directly in this Court. Rule 84.035(j).

XVII. DISMISSAL OF APPEALS

A. Voluntary

An appellant may file a voluntary dismissal of an appeal in the appellate court at any time prior to submission of the cause. Rules 84.09 and 30.13. After submission, a motion for voluntary dismissal will be at the court's discretion.

B. Involuntary

After the appellant files a notice of appeal, if the appellant fails to take the further steps required to secure review of the appeal within the periods of time allowed or extended, the clerk shall place the case on a dismissal docket. Rule 84.08(a) and Rule 30.14(a).

In a civil case, the clerk shall notify all parties that the appeal will be dismissed unless the appellant remedies the default before a specified date, not less than fifteen days from the date of the notice. If the default is not remedied by that date, an order of dismissal shall be entered. Rules 84.08(a).

In a criminal case, when a case is placed on the dismissal docket, notice shall be given as provided by Rule 84.025; in addition, the appellant shall be given personal notice by registered or certified mail. The notice shall state that the appeal will be dismissed unless the appellant remedies the default prior to a specified date. The date shall not be less than fifteen days from the date of the notice. If the default is not remedied by that date, an order of dismissal shall be entered. Rule 30.14(a). If an appeal is subject to dismissal under the provisions of this Rule 30.14, the prosecuting attorney in misdemeanor cases and the attorney general in felony cases, in lieu of the dismissal procedure, may file a motion in the appellate court requesting that the judgment of the trial court be affirmed. Rule 30.14(b).

XVIII. POST-DISPOSITION PROCESS

A. POST-DISPOSITION MOTIONS

1. Motion for Transfer

A. Rule 83.02 – By Court of Appeals

A case disposed of by an opinion, memorandum decision, written order, or order of dismissal in the court of appeals may be transferred to the Supreme Court of Missouri by order of a majority of the participating judges, regular and special, on their own motion or on application of a party. Transfer may be ordered because of the general interest or importance of a question involved in the case or for the purpose of reexamining existing law. Application by a party for transfer shall be filed within fifteen days of the date on which the opinion, memorandum decision, written order, or order of dismissal is filed unless for good cause shown the court of appeals extends the time for filing. The application for transfer may not exceed twelve pages. Rule 83.05. No response to an application for transfer shall be filed unless requested by the court, and an order for transfer shall not be granted in the absence of such a request. Motions for reconsideration of the court's action in refusing an application for transfer shall not be accepted or filed.

The form and contents of an application for transfer are set forth in Rule 83.05. If the court requests a response, within ten days after such request, any other party may file suggestions in opposition to the application, not to exceed six pages. Rule 83.06.

B. Rule 83.04 – By Supreme Court

A party does not need to file an application for transfer in the Western District pursuant to Rule 83.02 prior to filing an application for transfer with the Supreme Court. Rule 83.04

An application for transfer may be filed in the Supreme Court within the later of:

- (1) 15 days of the date on which the court of appeals denied transfer or overruled any Rule 84.17 post-disposition motion; or
- (2) 30 days of the date on which the court of appeals files its opinion, memorandum decision, written order, or order of dismissal.

Rule 83.04. The application for transfer may not exceed twelve pages. Rule 83.05. Upon a showing of good cause, an application for transfer may be filed out of time, but no application for transfer shall be filed if the court of appeals has issued its mandate that is still in effect. No response to an application for transfer shall be filed unless requested by the Supreme Court of Missouri. Motions for reconsideration of the Court's action in refusing an application for transfer or in overruling a motion to file an application for transfer out of time shall not be accepted or filed.

The form and contents of an application for transfer are set forth in Rule 83.05. If the court requests a response, within ten days after such request any other party may file suggestions in opposition to the application, not to exceed six pages. Rule 83.06.

Rule 30.27 states that Rule 83 governs transfer of criminal appellate cases.

2. Motion for Rehearing - Rule 84.17(a)(1)

The motion shall briefly and distinctly state the grounds upon which rehearing is sought. The purpose of a motion for rehearing is to call attention to material matters of law or fact overlooked or misinterpreted by the court. Reargument of issues determined by the court will be disregarded.

3. Motion to Modify - Rule 84.17(a)(2)

The motion shall briefly and distinctly state the grounds upon which modification is sought. The purpose of a motion to modify is to correct errors of law or fact that do not affect the disposition of the case.

4. Motion to Publish - Rule 84.17(a)(3)

The motion shall briefly and distinctly explain why the court's disposition of the appeal has precedential value, in whole or in part.

*A motion under Rule 84.17 shall be filed within fifteen days after the court files its opinion, written order under Rules 84.16(b) or 30.25(b), memorandum decision, or order of dismissal and may be accompanied by suggestions in support containing citation authority. Rule 84.17(b). No suggestions in opposition to a post-disposition motion shall be filed unless requested by the court. Rule 84.17(c). Within ten days after the court's request for suggestions, any party may file suggestions in opposition to the motion. Rule 84.17(c). If a motion for rehearing is overruled and the opinion is not materially modified, no further motion by the same party for rehearing or to set aside the order overruling the motion for rehearing may be filed. Rule 84.17(d). If the opinion is materially modified, any party may file a motion for rehearing as though the modified opinion is the original opinion. Rule 84.17(d).

Rule 30.26 – Rule 84.17 shall govern post-disposition motions in criminal cases.

B. MANDATES

Generally, a decision of the appellate court is considered final at the time the mandate is issued. Amburn v. Aldridge, 296 S.W.3d 32, 33 (Mo. App. 2009). Generally, a mandate is not issued until the time for filing a post-disposition motion has expired. If a post-disposition motion is filed, the mandate will not issue until the appellate court and the Supreme Court of Missouri resolve all such motions.

XIX. EXTRAORDINARY WRITS

Article V, section 4 of the Missouri Constitution authorizes the court of appeals to issue extraordinary original remedial writs.

The five types of remedial writs are:

1. Prohibition – Rule 97
2. Mandamus – Rule 94
3. Habeas Corpus – Rule 91
4. Quo Warranto – Rule 98
5. Certiorari.

Rules 84.22 through 84.24 set forth the procedure governing extraordinary remedial writs in general. The remedial writs are extraordinary remedies. The writs are distinct from a direct appeal, are not intended as a substitute for appeal, and will not lie if an appeal is possible or where there is another adequate remedy. The Missouri Bar CLE desk book on Appellate Court Practice is helpful in explaining the purpose and application of each of the five extraordinary writs.

The writ duty division of the court consists of a presiding judge and one other judge. Each writ division serves for a one-month period. A third judge is added to the division if the writ proceeds to the briefing and oral argument stage.

What is needed to file a writ: Rule 94.03; Rule 97.03; Rule 98.03

- (1) Writ Petition – Rule 84.24(a)(1) - Petition shall contain a statement of the facts, the relief sought, and a statement of the reasons why the writ should issue.

(2) Writ summary – Civil Procedure Form No. 16 -- identifies the parties, the nature of the underlying action, the action being challenged, the relief sought, and the date the case is set for trial or date of any other event bearing upon the relief sought. See Rule 84.24(a)(1). The writ summary shall not exceed one page exclusive of the caption and the identity of the parties and their attorneys in the underlying action. Rule 84.24(a)(1).

(3) Suggestions in Support – Rule 84.24(a)(2)

(4) $70.00 docket fee – or a statement citing specific statutory or other authority demonstrating a docket fee is not required by law or a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. Rule 84.24(a)(3); Rule 81.04(d).

(5) Proof of Service – Proof of service shall be filed that identifies the name, address, electronic mail address, and phone number of each attorney served and the name of the party such attorney represents, and each party served who is not represented by an attorney. Rule 84.24(a)(4).

(6) Exhibits – shall be attached to the petition along with an index of all exhibits. The exhibits shall be identified in the index by number or letter and page, and, in addition, shall be described so the court can distinguish the exhibits. The pages of the exhibits shall be numbered consecutively. A copy of any order, opinion, record or part thereof, document, or other item that may be essential to an understanding of the matters set forth in the petition shall be attached as exhibits if not set forth therein. The party filing the petition shall include in the exhibits to the petition any legal memorandum (e.g., motion or suggestions in opposition) filed in the lower court or agency, which advocated a position contrary to the relief requested in the petition. If the legal memorandum included exhibits or attachments exceeding twenty-five pages, the exhibits or attachments to the legal memorandum may be omitted. Any such omission shall be indicated on the copy of the legal memorandum filed as an exhibit to the petition. Western District Special Rule 20.

Within ten days after the filing of the petition for an original writ, the respondent may file suggestions in opposition to the issuance of the writ. Within that same time, any party in the underlying matter may file suggestions in opposition, either individually or jointly with any other person filing such suggestions. Rule 84.24(c). Except as provided in Rule 84.24(e), the writ shall not issue before the expiration of the time for the respondent to file suggestions in opposition to the issuance of the writ. Rule 84.24(d). If the ten-day time limit would defeat the purpose of the writ the court may, on the motion of the petitioner, relator, or on the court's own motion, shorten the time or dispense with such time limits altogether for filing suggestions in opposition. Rule 84.24(e).

After the petition is filed, the judges of the writ division shall determine whether to request suggestions in opposition from respondent, issue a preliminary order, issue a peremptory writ, or deny the writ petition. Oral argument is not granted at this stage of the proceedings. A denial of the petition for the writ may be made at any time after filing of the petition. Rule 84.24(d).

If the petition is denied - The parties involved will be informed by a written order. The court rarely states a reason why the petition for the writ is denied. Denial of the petition ends the matter in this court. Motions for reconsideration shall not be filed. Rule 84.24(l). The relator's only remedy is to file an original petition in the Supreme Court of Missouri.

If a preliminary order is issued – The order may require the respondent to file an answer. Rule 84.24(d). The answer admits or denies the allegations of the relator's petition.

The petition for the writ, together with the suggestions in support thereof, any exhibits accompanying the petition, all suggestions in opposition, the writ and return of service thereon, the answer made to the petition for the writ, and all other papers, documents, orders, and records filed in the appellate court shall constitute the record. No record under Rule 81.12 is required. Rule 84.24(g).

Rule 84.24(f) states that oral arguments will not be granted on petitions for original remedial writs, but if the court so desires it may set a case for oral argument. The preliminary order may also set forth a briefing schedule and a date for oral argument. Rule 84.24(h). Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Rule 84.04, except that the time for filing the briefs shall be as follows: petition or relator – filed within thirty days from the answer date of the preliminary order; respondent's brief shall be filed within twenty days thereafter; and if petitioner or relator wants to file a reply brief, it shall be filed within ten days thereafter. Rule 84.24(h).

If a permanent writ in mandamus or prohibition is ordered to issue, the court shall issue an opinion setting out its reasons for issuing the writ. Rule 84.24(k). The opinion shall be filed contemporaneously with the order to issue the writ or, if exigent circumstances require, within a reasonable time after the issuance of the writ. Rule 84.24(k).

All initially issued writs shall be preliminary writs that, upon final determination, shall be quashed or made permanent. State ex rel. Unnerstall v. Berkemeyer, 298 S.W.3d 513, 516 (Mo. banc 2009). A preliminary order may be quashed by order with or without an opinion setting forth the court's reasons. Id. at 516 n.3.

If the court disposes of a petition for a writ by the issuance of an opinion, further review of the action shall be allowed only as provided in Rule 83 and Rule 84.17. Rule 84.24(m).
